A Message from Reverend Pruner

On Tuesday, following the weekend of heinous acts of violence in El Paso and Dayton, I drove down the main road where I live, and I was struck by the large flag in front of an auto dealer. The enormous flag that I have seen fly high in the wind, now was flying at half mast in mourning. As the wind blew it was as if no gust would be great enough to lift it high. In a real sense the flag represented the breaking hearts of those in El Paso, Dayton, and our entire nation. For me, I also saw it as a representation of just how heavy God's heart was as he looked upon his people so broken. After such horrific events like this past weekend, we are ready to look more closely at the brokenness within our country, our groups, individuals and yes, even ourselves. Many have thoughts, reasons and even solutions. However, time passes and for most it is back to life as usual. What is life as usual? Our lives are filled with busy agendas, overbooked calendars, and family commitments which are squeezed in when possible. Too often there is not enough time for one another and certainly not enough time for God. The result is many of us suffer from overwhelming anxiety. We worry no matter whether we are young or old, rich or poor. We worry about our health, our jobs, our school, our relationships, the unknown. However, many psychologists say we are driven more by our fear of rejection. According to John Amodeo, PhD:

"The fear of rejection is one of our deepest human fears. Biologically wired with a longing to belong, we fear being seen in a critical way. We're anxious about the prospect of being cut off, demeaned, or isolated. We fear being alone. We dread change.

MISSION STATEMENT

We the people of Cornerstone are a part of God's Grand Adventure to: ground our lives on the solid rock of Jesus Christ, build up each other in love through prayer, words and deeds, and to create God's community in Jackson and beyond.

In a cognitive level, we may be afraid that rejection confirms our worst fear — perhaps that we're unlovable, or that we're destined to be alone, or that we have little worth or value. When these fear-based thoughts keep spinning in our mind, we may become agitated, anxious, or depressed."

So much of what we do is dictated by whether people will affirm us. We can become unbelievably anxious when we think we are not being accepted. Yet, as hard as we work to assuage our fears, we will never succeed. There is an emptiness, a gaping hole that we try to fill with distractions. Things like work, games, possessions, etc but the emptiness remains. This emptiness and our fears of rejection can lead to isolation, envy anger and rage. On our own the hole remains, but with God at our center the hole is filled.

In Psalm 139:7-12 David writes: Where can I go from your spirit? Or where can I flee from your presence? If I ascend to heaven, you are there; if I make my bed in Sheol, you are there. If I take the wings of the morning and settle at the farthest limits of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me fast. If I say, "Surely the darkness shall cover me, and the light around me become night," even the darkness is not dark to you; the night is as bright as the day, for darkness is as light to you.

David discovered there is nowhere we can flee that God is not there, that in our darkest days God is there. That it is only in knowing God that we can find peace.

God's heart is perhaps so heavy as he sees, we his people, so broken knowing that he has provided for us, his children a pathway for our peace through Jesus Christ. Jesus is a living witness of our God's love for us. God who will stop at nothing to reach out to us through space and time to embrace us.

When we finally let go of "living our lives for the approval of others" and instead live our lives for the glory of God, the hole within us vanishes. We come to know again the God who made us, loves us and who will never abandon us. Hope lives even and especially when our hearts break and the days are dark.

Please pray for:

- Ray Schleckser recovering from injuries after a fall
- Vikki Leach’s mother-in-law with cancer in hospice care
- Denise Mudalel’s cousin’s husband Jimmy being treated for leukemia

By Susan Kornutick

A FAITHFUL FRIEND

A faithful friend is God, indeed!
 He knows our every single need.
 He wraps us snug, in his embrace
 when we can't find a friendly face.
 But when we need to wander free,
 He lets us go, and let's us be.
 He hears our calls when we're distressed,
 and weariness lays on our breast.
 His sigh of sorrow fills the air
 when we forget that He is there.
 And even when we lay the blame;
 neglecting Him on some false claim,
 He know our hearts beat strong with love for Him our Father, up above.

A convenient, consistent way to help our church grow

Did you know Cornerstone offers electronic giving? It's a simple and convenient way to give. Cornerstone relies on the financial support of the congregation, and electronic giving offers an easy way to give on a recurring basis without having to remember an envelope or a check. Forms are available in the church foyer. For more information, contact Elizabeth Hughes.

Cornerstone is offering a new opportunity for the congregation to donate flower arrangements for the communion table, with a memorial or honorarium dedication in the bulletin. The cost is $30 and proceeds will be used for a Cornerstone Flower Fund to allow us to purchase other special arrangements as needed throughout the year. Please see Elizabeth Hughes to sign up for any Sunday in 2019 or sign up through the link on the homepage of our website cornerstonechurchofjackson.org.

Who Is My Neighbor?
Learning to love like Jesus

Who is my neighbor? Neighbors are more than people who live next door. Neighbors are more than people in our families or communities. Through five carefully chosen Bible stories, Who Is My Neighbor? VBS leads children on a journey to discover more about God's great love. From looking at how to be a neighbor to diving into what it means to live out our faith, this interactive VBS series will lead children deeply into Bible stories focused on God's care and compassion for neighbors close at hand and around the world. Join us as we discover neighbors near and far!

Children ages 2 years old (by April 2019) through 5th grade graduates are welcome to this time of fun, music, games, crafts, snacks, and incredible Bible stories. Who Is My Neighbor? VBS will take place at Cornerstone Presbyterian Church, 569 Harmony Road, Jackson. The registration fee is $5 per child, which helps us to offset the cost of the VBS curriculum and supplies for our week together. We also ask that each child bring a white, cotton T-Shirt. Our older children will be tie dying them and all the children will wear them for our closing program on Friday at 11 AM.

Please use the registration form available in church or register online through our website cornerstonechurchofjackson.org!

Come enjoy one of the last weeks of the summer with us as we have fun together and help our neighbors!

LOOKING FOR ADULT VOLUNTEERS! We will need help setting up on Sunday, August 18th, and also helpers throughout the week—registration, crafts, snacks, acting and music, cleanup on Friday. Let Reverend Pruner know if you can help, or you can also use the online registration form on our website (just select "0" for number of kids to register).
