Call to Prayer

The Psalmist reveals the constant presence of God in these words. Hear them now as we prepare to worship:

Where can I go from your spirit? Or where can I flee from your presence? If I ascend to heaven, you are there; if I make my bed in Sheol, you are there. If I take the wings of the morning and settle at the farthest limits of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me fast.

Word of Welcome! "God is Good! All the Time!" Reverend Pruner

Call to Worship

L: A voice of power and majesty calls out to us: I am your God; I have called you in righteousness.

P: We are amazed that God knows us and calls us. By God's breath and spirit; we receive life.

L: God takes us by the hand and leads us. In covenant with God, we extend light to the world.

P: Eyes are opened and prisoners are freed. Justice and peace prevail, by God's strength.

L: Worship with joy and give glory to God's name. Listen for the new thing God declares.

P: We remember that we have been baptized. May we live as those with whom God is pleased.

Call to Confession

Reverend Pruner

Unison Prayer of Confession

God of justice and righteousness, whose compassion for humankind was expressed so vividly in Jesus of Nazareth, we bring to you our sorrow in our anguish that we have not followed faithfully in the footsteps of Christ. We confess that we rush through our days without recognizing your presence with us. We follow our busy diversion without reference to your will for us. We strive for financial success and personal recognition, while you call for
