Call to Prayer

David LaCross

Hear these words from Paul's letter to the church in Rome as we prepare to worship. We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope, we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience. Likewise, the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words.

Call to Worship

Fred VanLooy

Leader: Give ear to our words, O Lord; Listen to the sound of our praise, to our King and our God.

People: Let all who take refuge in you rejoice; let them ever sing for joy!

Leader: Through the abundance of your steadfast love, we will enter your house, we will bow down toward your holy temple in awe of you.

People: May we live according to your word and walk in your grace and love. So that all may come to love you and we may together exult your holy name.

Call to Confession

Reverend Pruner

Unison Prayer of Confession

Gracious and loving God, the gift of the Holy Spirit is always with us. You encourage and strengthen us, and you send us out to serve you. Your grace is sufficient for every need, yet we often doubt your presence. We wonder where you are in all that happens in this world. We struggle with trusting wholeheartedly in your love, power and goodness. We fail to keep our hearts centered and our minds focused on Jesus, the Risen Christ. Forgive us. Rescue us. Empower us. May we seek to do your will bringing glory to your name. Through Christ we pray. Amen
