Call to Prayer

David LaCross

I am reminded of your sincere faith, a faith that lived first in your grandmother Lois and your mother Eunice and now, I am sure, lives in you. For this reason I remind you to rekindle the gift of God that is within you through the laying on of my hands; for God did not give us a spirit of cowardice, but rather a spirit of power and of love and of self-discipline.

Do not be ashamed, then, of the testimony about our Lord or of me his prisoner, but join with me in suffering for the gospel, relying on the power of God, who saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works but according to his own purpose and grace.

Call to Worship

Fred VanLooy

L: Tremble, O earth, in the presence of your God. It is an awesome thing to be surprised by God.

P: Life has been revealed to us in this Easter season. We declare to each other what we have experienced.

L: Early believers were of one heart and soul. We, too, are called to find common ground in Christ.

P: How very good and pleasant it is when kindred live together in unity.

L: Peace be with you as we celebrate resurrection. Christ is with us to renew our faith.

P: We are here to testify to God's grace. We will share our story and ourselves.

Call to Confession

Reverend Pruner

Unison Prayer of Confession

We call ourselves Christians, but far too often we are only Christian by name. We have experienced the radiance of Easter, but we seldom reflect the light of our risen savior. We have heard the message of salvation, but it has little influence on our lives. Sometimes we delude ourselves into thinking we are living God's ways and there is no sin in us. We deceive
