Gathering Music "God You Are"

Call to Prayer

David LaCross

As we join to worship, hear these words from Psalm 4: How long, you people, shall my honor suffer shame? How long will you love vain words, and seek after lies? Offer right sacrifices, and put your trust in the LORD. There are many who say, "O that we might see some good! Let the light of your face shine on us, O LORD!" You have put gladness in my heart more than when their grain and wine abound. I will both lie down and sleep in peace; for you alone, O LORD, make me lie down in safety.

Call to Worship

Fred Van Looy

L: Praise the Lord! I thank the Lord with all my heart in the company of those who do right, in the congregation of God's people.

P: How amazing are the works of our God! They are treasured by all who love and serve him. Everything he does reveals his glory and majesty.

L: Who can forget the wonders he performs? How gracious and merciful is our God! All he does is just and good, and his commandments are trustworthy.

P: They are forever true, to be obeyed faithfully and with integrity. Devotion for the Lord is where true wisdom begins.

All: Praise God's name forever!

Call to Confession

Reverend Pruner

Unison Prayer of Confession

Lord, your perspective is eternal. Our view is narrow and clouded with bias. You are present to all of time in an instant. We overlook the people and circumstances right in front of us. You are orchestrating all of history toward fullness in Jesus. We struggle to maintain healthy relationship even with those we love most. Lord, we need you—your perspective, your presence, and your power. Forgive us for turning to our own broken wisdom and limited perspectives. Direct us more fully to your son. Make us more like him, and empower us by your Spirit to follow the way of Jesus. We pray this in Jesus' name. Amen.
