A NOTE FROM OUR PASTOR

An Attitude of Gratitude

As we approach Thanksgiving, we are reminded to be grateful for our blessings. Thanksgiving is not the only time of year we are thankful but it's a time set apart to consider all that we have and to be appreciative of what we have received. For Christians, we do seek to be grateful all year long...but joining all the rest of North America in this holiday, we find ourselves realizing the plenty with which we've been blessed and to share what we have with others. When asked what they are thankful for a group of preschool students in a neighborhood church started to list off these items: food, clothing, family, homes, pets, and friends. The words of a child's mouth encourage us to consider all these things as blessings. When I was a child and I joined my parents and sisters in evening prayers, I used to thank God for the couch and the piano. In my childhood bed-time prayer, I would go on thank God for the brownies we had for dessert, the song on the radio and many other things I had enjoyed. My parents used to tease me that I was just trying to avoid bed-time by listing all the things I could dragging out the prayer. There was probably some truth to that – but in general it is important as we grow into adulthood that we not lose our childhood appreciation for every day blessings. It is a discipline to set aside time to list our blessings. Some of us are so busy that we forget to slow down and enjoy the little things – like conversations with friends and family, laughter, home-cooked meals, and the smiles on our children's faces. Oprah Winfrey shared once that research informed us that those who would take time to list five blessings before they would go to sleep each night would dwell on those thanksgivings all through the night and into their sleep and then they would wake up feeling blessed and ready to start a new day in search of new blessings. Cornerstone Presbyterian Church is indeed blessed. We are grateful to our elders, deacons, our hard-working staff, and our members and friends who come together each Sunday and beyond to support each other in the life and ministry of Jesus Christ. We seek to be faithful to God's work in Jackson and beyond. It was a blessing last Sunday, October 26 to have three amazing opportunities to praise God ...from our worship service in honor of Reformation Sunday with communion and Sunday School for our young people to our very first work day over at Harmony Road! (continued on next page)

MISSION STATEMENT

We the people of Cornerstone are a part of God's Grand Adventure to: ground our lives on the solid rock of Jesus Christ, build up each other in love through prayer, words and deeds, and to create God's community in Jackson and beyond.

Then we ended the full-day of work and ministry with a fall celebration with trunk or treat, games, and times of fellowship. We had a great turn-out for all three events lifting up our thanksgiving and praise to God for life, forgiveness found in Christ, and the fellowship and meaningful friendships found in our church family. Please know this thanksgiving that I am thankful for YOU! I pray for each of you and give thanks for you and I do appreciate you! As we approach our season of stewardship – I pray that you too would consider how the Lord has blessed you – and to share with God out of your abundance and as you are able with your time, talents, and treasures. Cornerstone is in a wonderful new season as we venture into our own dedicated space and with all change comes so challenges but also with opportunities. Pray for Cornerstone in this season and share with God with a cheerful heart all that you are and all that you long to be. Our Lord promises that in response to our generosity with Him – that our lives will indeed be abundantly blessed!

Happy Thanksgiving!

Greetings from Utah! A letter from Christine Tegeder

Dear Family and Friends,

I know this is the type of letter you might receive at Christmas time, but we wanted to get our new contact information out to you, as well as one can only assume that Chris won't get out Christmas letters her first Christmas as a full time pastor.

2014 has been very busy so far. In March Chris was ordained as a Presbyterian minister at her home church in Toms River. One week later she started her new position as associate pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Salt Lake City, UT. Her drive in the U-Haul and towing her car was a long one (almost 2300 miles), but despite it being March she hit little bad weather and no closed roads. Thanks be to God! Back in NJ, Mark finished out his teaching year at South Toms River elementary, teaching until June 25th. The house went on the market in March. It has NOT sold, so please pray for that.

For five months Chris was in an apartment in downtown Salt Lake City close to the church. She got to know the area and got to ski twice and hike several times. She hit the ground running with her new job and has really enjoyed getting to know and serve the congregation of First Pres. It is a diverse congregation of great people; About 25% former LDS, a large refugee population of Pakistani and African and Chinese, and protestants from all over the Salt Lake Valley. The staff is great and she has found her colleagues to be a blessing.

In July Chris bought a house in Bountiful, UT, about 15 minutes from the church, and Mark scheduled the movers from NJ. Chris had lots of work done to the house (new hardwood floors, wiring, doors, drywall, tree trimmers, etc.) and then painted the entire house inside. The movers finally came to NJ on August 9th and Mark was on his way with his car, trailer, and four cats. So we are now all here! Mark got a part time job with the Salt Lake School district. He will be working in the administrative offices for the fine arts department mentoring teachers and maintaining some computer and web support. We pray this turns into a full time position after a period of time there.

Ministry in Utah is like being in the mission field, but we are finding it fun to be the minority. It brings faith to the tip of people's tongues and lends itself to lots of interesting conversations. God is at work here and we are excited to be part of what God will do in Salt Lake City. As a downtown church, we have a unique opportunity to minister to not just the LDS population, but also to relocated refugees, transplants from all over the country now attending or teaching at the Univ. of Utah, the homeless, and at risk youth.

Here is our new contact information. We miss everyone and hope that folks will use us as a free place to stay when coming west for vacations and skiing and the like. We will be back in NJ for Thanksgiving and then here in Utah for our first Christmas that might actually be a white Christmas! :)

Blessings from Mark and Chris!

In Support of Cornerstone...

Some of you have asked how you might support Cornerstone Presbyterian Church of Jackson! ...Especially as we venture into our very own building space on Harmony Road. We are so excited that we had a successful first work day on October 26th! Woohoo! And we are so grateful to all who came out to work and to support this new venture. For those who haven't had a chance to visit - the church building location is 569 Harmony Road in Jackson, NJ – drive by and check it out! We also have our trailer to be used as a construction office, storage, and eventually Sunday School classrooms and a church office. So – in response to how you can support this new venture here are some ideas:

First of all - please PRAY! All new transitions and changes are hard and this will be a challenge as we practice patience and wait for all the necessary upgrades, renovations, and constructions to occur over the next eight months or so. Pray for us as "together" we work and wait to bring about this new vision. We also hope to sell the land that is for sale on 571 – so pray for that possibility as well.

Secondly – Help – if you are able – with upcoming work projects, with sharing with others our Good News, and by inviting others to be a part of this new and wonderful phase in the life of our church! We will need folks in the future to help with gardening, snow shoveling, cleaning, and maintaining our new facility – so think through how you will use your gifts to show your love of God in support of Cornerstone's ministry.

Third - we would welcome initial or additional donations in support of Cornerstone's ministry with the Harmony Road location and in our ongoing ministry in Jackson and beyond! Checks can be made out to the church and sent to Cornerstone Presbyterian, PO Box 140, Jackson, NJ 08527. You can donate through Paypal at our church website: www.cornerstonechurchofjackson.org. Or we have also set up a Fundraiser Website at: <https://www.crowdrise.com/cornerstonebuildingfund2014/fundraiser/courtneycromie>.

So thank you, in advance, for your support! We are most grateful! God is Good!

This year, the elementary class will be taught by Kellie Pushko and rotating volunteers—Patti Miller has graciously volunteered for October and Denise Mudalel for November. Additional volunteers are needed, please speak to Kristen DiGirolamo.

Sunday School for Kids!

This fall, the Elementary School class will study "Route 66: A Trip Through the 66 Books of the Bible." This curriculum is designed to take children on a life-changing journey through each of the 66 books of the Bible, introducing them to more of the wonders of the Word and the adventures that can be found in a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ. Each week, Route 66 will introduce children to a different book or group of books in the Bible. They'll learn about the author, the time frame, the key people and the book's purpose, while creating a souvenir scrapbook that will serve as a way to remember all of the different stops and to celebrate the journey.

The Middle School and High School Youth are studying a survey of the Bible, with an Old Testament study called "Wilderness Wanderings and the Conquest of Canaan" continuing the story of Moses and the Israelites journey through the Wilderness and concluding with the story of Joshua and the fulfillment of God's promise to Abraham.

Teachers:

Nursery: Courtney Miner

Elementary: Kellie Pushko & rotating teachers (November—Denise Mudalel)

Middle & High School: Elizabeth Hughes, Kristen DiGirolamo, Dominique Robert

The Cornerstone Choir rehearses on Thursday evenings at Debows United Methodist Church (509 Monmouth Road, Jackson) from 7-8 PM and before worship on Sundays at 9:00 AM.

Choir rehearsals begin with a bible verse and prayer, warm ups of the voice, and then the rehearsing of anthems. Rehearsals are low key and fun! We are always looking for new members and hope that you will prayerfully consider joining this awesome group of singers. Singing is another way that we can pray. If you are interested in joining us consider stopping by one Thursday evening or contact Susan (srplus3@comcast.net).

Women's Tuesday Morning Bible Study

All Women Welcome!

The Women's Bible Study is led by Pastor Courtney at the home of Elizabeth Hughes from 10:30 AM—12:15 PM. The women are doing a DVD study called The Patriarchs: Encountering the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, by Beth Moore, a 10-week women's Bible study of Genesis 12-50. Discover God's pursuit of a relationship with man, and marvel as His plan to bless all people unfolds. Full of twists and turns, ruin and redemption, revelation and mystery this Bible study keeps participants captivated by the God who stars in it! Explore concepts such as blessing, covenant, and promise, and the bearing each has on a New Testament believer's life today. Group members will also study the Hebrew names of God introduced on the early pages of Scripture.

ADULT BOOK STUDY—Monday Evenings 6:30–8:00 PM

The Adult Book Study meets on Mondays and is continuing their study of the book Twelve Ordinary Men: How the Master Shaped His Disciples for Greatness, and What He Wants to Do with You, by John MacArthur.

This group meets at 6:30 PM at the home of Bob & Laurie Wegner. All adults are encouraged and welcome! Description: Contrary to popular belief, we do not have to be perfect to do God's work. Look no further than the twelve disciples whose many weaknesses are forever preserved throughout the pages of the New Testament. Jesus chose ordinary men - fisherman, tax collectors, political zealots - and turned their weakness into strength, producing greatness from utter uselessness. MacArthur draws principles from Christ's careful, hands-on training of the original twelve disciples for today's modern disciple - you.

Consecration, Commitment, and Celebration Sunday

November 23, 2014

Cornerstone is rooted in gratitude for the many gifts God has bestowed upon us as individuals and as a church community. God calls us through Scripture and in the act of Christian stewardship to do the following:

- nurture our relationship with God through prayer
- put our faith into action through service with our time & talents
- and to share our gifts with others by giving.

On Sunday, November 23, in our worship service we will celebrate the gift of our church family and we will offer up the commitments of the above. The commitment of our prayers, our service in time & talents, and in our giving as we pledge our financial resources for 2015.

Then in response to our prayers and our commitments, we will ask God to consecrate them to His purposes. Praying, Serving, and Giving are the important ways we live as good Christian stewards in response to all that God has done, is doing, and will do for us. Giving a financial commitment to support the basic operating needs represents a tangible expression of gratitude for God's role in your life and the part the church has played in deepening your spiritual life. At the same time, your commitments enable Cornerstone Church to support the many programs, mission efforts, ministries, and services that promote prayer, service, and giving to others within, and beyond our Cornerstone Church Family. Please contact Pastor Courtney or Co-Chairs of our Finance Committee -Denise Mudalel or Debbie LaCross for more information.

Join us on November 23rd in Celebration of Cornerstone! God is Good - All the Time!

Our thanks to the Finance Committee for their hard work (Debbie LaCross, Denise Mudalel, Dominique Robert, Tina Kas, and Okoro Okparaeké).
