Gathering Music "Who You Are to Me" "You Say"

Call to Prayer

David LaCross

Listen to these words from Psalm 139 as we prepare to worship: We gather together to worship our loving, nurturing God, who, like a mother, knows us intimately, loves us unconditionally, teaches us the way we should go, and comforts us in times of need. Praise God, the Source and Sustainer of life!

Call to Worship

Fred VanLooy

L: Loving and nurturing God, we thank you for mothers and the many women who nurture us in mothering ways, for all they mean or have meant to us.

P: We thank you for the love they have shown and the care they have given. For the many times they gave us hugs and held us close.

L: Loving and nurturing God we thank you for the qualities of mothers: for their patience, their kindness, concern and understanding, in so many ways reflecting who you are.

P: We thank you that you gave birth to all of us with delight and joy, Lord in your mercy may we walk in your love and worship your Holy name.

Call to Confession

Reverend Pruner

Unison Prayer of Confession

We come, O Lord, as your daughters and sons with hearts overflowing with praise for you. Your care sustains us in each moment, and your compassion guides us in each situation. When we fall, you lift us, when we fail you restore us. When we are wounded, you nurse us, when we grieve, you weep with us. Yet, we have failed to love as you do, we have filled our minds with selfish dreams, we have made our hearts cold and empty of compassion, and distorted your image within us. As a mother forgives her sons and daughters who hurt her, we ask you to forgive us. As a mother calls her children to be reconciled with their siblings, we ask you to lead us to reconciliation with one another. We pray in the name of Jesus our Lord. Amen.
