Call to Prayer

Fred Van Looy

As we join to worship, hear these words from Psalm 78: Give ear, O my people, to my teaching; incline your ears to the words of my mouth. I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings from of old, things that we have heard and known; that our ancestors have told us. We will not hide them from their children; we will tell to the coming generation the glorious deeds of the Lord and his might and the wonders that he has done.

Call to Worship

Fred Van Looy

L: Lift up your voice and call out to God.

P: We cry out, believing that God hears us.

L: Come together and wait for God.

P: We come together, trusting that God is still speaking.

L: Surely God's presence is here with us now.

P: We wait in hope, for God's steadfast love lifts our hearts.

L: Come, worship the Lord.

P: We celebrate the power of God that restores us.

Call to Confession

Reverend Pruner

Unison Prayer of Confession

All-powerful God, we have become so comfortable with our advantages that we forget who makes them possible. As a father provides and cares for his children so you have cared for us. Rather than trusting in your love, we have been eager for riches, we tend to wander away from you and the one you have given us to live, and our faith diminishes. We so often consider ourselves more worthy to enjoy your bounty than others. Our hearts focus on the things we can accumulate more than your call to love one another. Have mercy on us and melt our hardened hearts so we may discover the joy of faithful discipleship. We pray humbly in the name of Christ our Lord. Amen.
