Call to Prayer

David LaCross

Let us reflect on selections from Paul's Letter to the Colossians chapter 3: Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Call to Worship

Fred VanLooy

L: Let us worship today by remembering that it is not we who chose Christ, but Christ who chose us.

P: That we are not here because of our goodness but because of Christ's grace.

L: That we are not here to enlighten ourselves, but to allow Christ to enlighten us.

P: That we have not come to be amused but to honor and worship God with heart, soul, mind and strength.

All: Let us unite our voices in praise to our Gracious Lord!

Call to Confession

Reverend Pruner

Unison Prayer of Confession

Dear Lord, we come before you as your children to give you the honor and praise that you so richly deserve. You are our One and only true God, the generous giver of life and the sustainer of our souls. We are grateful for your grace, for how you love us, and for how you have called us to be your hands and feet. In response to your great mercy, we confess how we have sinned and fallen short of the people you created us to be. We have too often acted in selfish ways, we have hurt one another, and we have acted as if the universe revolves around us. We have strayed from our worship of you and gone our own way. Please forgive us, Lord, and help us to repent and to mercifully receive your love. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.
