Call to Prayer

David LaCross

Let us reflect on selections from Paul's Letter to the Colossians chapter 3: Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; teach and admonish one another in all wisdom; and with gratitude in your hearts sing psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God. And whatever you do, in word or deed, do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

Call to Confession

Reverend Pruner

Unison Prayer of Confession

Dear Lord, we come before you as your children to give you the honor and praise that you so richly deserve. You are our One and only true God, the generous giver of life and the sustainer of our souls. We are grateful for your grace, for how you love us, and for how you have called us to be your hands and feet. In response to your great mercy, we confess how we have sinned and fallen short of the people you created us to be. We have too often acted in selfish ways, we have hurt one another, and we have too often acted as if the universe revolves around us. We have strayed from our worship of you and gone our own way. Please forgive us, Lord, and help us to repent and to receive your love. We pray in Jesus' name. Amen.
