Call to Prayer

Dave LaCross

Lord, we consider it to be our greatest blessing that You were willing to send us Your Son so that we might obtain our salvation by His sacrifice on our behalf. As we worship this morning we pray that we might be attentive to His word and accepting of His way. May we honor and welcome Him into our midst this morning.

Ringling of the Harmony Bell

Word of Welcome! "God is Good! All the Time!"

Call to Worship

Fred VanLooy

Leader: O LORD, we love Your house, the place where Your glory abides.

People: We come here singing aloud a song of thanksgiving, and telling all Your wondrous deeds.

Leader: LORD You are our light and our salvation. You are the stronghold of our lives; where else can we go?

People: We wait for the LORD; may we be strong and have courage as we wait for the LORD!

Leader: Say to God, "How awesome are Your deeds! How straightforward are Your ways."

All: All the earth worships You; they sing praises to You, praises to Your name."

Praise Song "Ancient of Days"

Hymn 138 "Holy, Holy, Holy," vs 1 & 2

Call to Confession

Rev. Jim Pruner

Prayer of Confession

Lord, You are a righteous and holy God who has called us to be Your people. You expect us to be obedient to Your ways and for us to follow Your laws. But we have to admit that we fall far short of the mark. We leave promises left undone and we often bring harm to others. Like a misshaped lump of clay, we are far from perfect. Forgive us, we pray. Grant that we might be blessed with Your Spirit so that we can gain more insight into Your will and more resolve to carry it out. Remold us in Your image, as You see fit. In the name of Your perfect son Jesus we pray. Amen.
