Call to Prayer

Kellie Pushko

Hear these words from Jeremiah:

But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord: I will put my law within them, and I will write it on their hearts; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people. No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other, "Know the Lord," for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord; for I will forgive their iniquity, and remember their sin no more.

Fred VanLooy

L: God of the prophets, call to us today,

P: Call us into Your ways of love, justice and righteousness.

L: God of the poets, remind us again how much You love us,

P: Sing to us Your ways of love, justice and righteousness.

L: God of the disciples, teach us how to follow You,

P: Teach us Your ways of compassion, kindness and love.

All: We gather to hear Your call, to sing Your praise, to teach each other, to pray and worship as the Body of Christ.

Call to Confession

Rev. Tory Pruner

Unison Prayer of Confession:

Loving Lord, We pray that our hearts desire what Your heart desires, instead of being blinded by the lights of success; by the perceived safety of money; by the need to attain more and more. May we instead pursue the deeper things of Your Kingdom. Forgive us for our failure to value what You value. Forgive us for too often living our lives more focused on ourselves than surrendering to Your purposes. Remove our shallow pursuits of this world so that we can pursue abundant life with You. For You alone are the One
